

Importance of Health Insurance in the U.S.

Presented by: ISO
Student Health Insurance

The U.S. healthcare system is very different than your home country and is known for being the most expensive in the world. Stressful changes as a new student can increase your chances of being sick. According to studies, students admitted to:

Usage of at least one prescription drug

Catch the flu
in the winter

Getting treatment for mental health issues

Injuries or sicknesses occur when you least expect it, which is why having health insurance coverage is strongly advised from the moment you arrive to the U.S.

From Diagnosis to Debt: The Real Cost of Medical Bills

Even small treatments can add up to significant amounts. Here are some bills for minor conditions:

$5,592

Headaches

$5,721

Sprained Wrist

$16,689

Rashes

Without insurance coverage, you can jeopardize the hard work you've put into your educational journey.

Early program termination

Additional stress

Poor credit scores

Financial penalties and hardship
